

Point of View.

reliable narrator: narrator tells us what happens in a way that is true and undistorted.

unreliable narrator: narrator doesn't tell the true and complete story.

Alternating first-person narration:

Different parts of the story are told by different characters

Example: one chapter is told by one's POV then the other chapter is told by another's.