

Types of Conflict

a struggle between opposing forces

Drive the plot - w/out conflicts, the story would be boring
A story can have several conflicts
The main conflict is central to the plot.

Types of Conflict

a struggle between two or more forces

(external)

Character has to fight against a sickness or something in nature to survive.

Character faces problems in his or her own heart & mind.

- can include making a decision or feeling bad about something

Character struggles against one or more people

Character fights against the rules of a group of people - fights an institution/rule

Drive the plot forward. Without conflicts, the story would be boring.
A story can have several conflicts.
The main conflict is central to the plot.